BACK AGAIN TO CITY PARK.

FAST TRACK, GOOD WEATHER AND A BIG ATTENDANCE FEATURES OF THE DAY.

Jack Atkin with Big Weight Up Wins the Chief Race of the Day-Gibson Wins for McDowell -Orly Takes a Fast Race.

New Orleans, La., January 20.-Fine weather and fast track marked the resumption of racing at City Park, with a big attendance. Thirty-nine laya record number in these parts, were in line, but the light business did not justify the number.

From a racing standpoint the handicap at seven furlongs was the principal feature. In it Jack Atkin was asked to carry 134 pounds and concede weight to the other starters, among them Jacobite. He did so in decisive fashion and demonstrated that, excepting Chapultepec, he is easily the best racer here. Jacobite's performance was by no means a poor one. He carried his 129 pounds gallantly and stood a hard drive to beat Pasadena for second place.

Fifteen filly baby racers made their debut in the opening scramble, and the finish was a desperate one between Elizabeth Harwood, from Edward Corrigan's stable, and Helen Kidder, owned by F. A. Pond. Inela, a Cella representative, finished in third place. It was probably the poorest of any of the juvenile races run to date, as all of the starters were green and dashed helter skelter all

The steeplechase had an unwieldy field of four teen starters and went to Coal Black Lady, well ridden by the Italian rider, Masnada. McAllister went we'll throughout and but for suffering from some early interference, might have beaten the Thespian displayed erratic form and, while in the lead approaching the fourth hedge, attempfed to bolt, but failing to clear the obstacle, crashed into the wing and fell heavily. His rider, C. Holt, sustained a fractured collar bone and a broken jaw. Thespian had to be destroyed.

closing race furnished the best the afternoon, Orly, the favorite, getting up in the last stride to beat Donna, which, running to her best form today, was troublesome throughout. D. Vittitoe, trainer of Dr. McCluer, acting for his employer, John J. Ryan, bid the winner up to $2,000, an advance of $600 and bought him. P. M. Civill in retaliation claimed Donna for $1,250.

Severus, favored by good racing luck, took the fifth race from the poorly ridden Hans. Jennie's Beau closed a tremendous gap and was clearly best. Gibson, in the third race, was best of the poor racers starting in it.

Judge McDowell was again forced to be absent rom the judges' stand on account of illness. William Shelly presided and J. Campbell acted as associate judge.

The suit for damages instituted by William Rabb, who was ruled off at City Park in 1996, was postpoaed until tomorrow.

Eole Pearsall, a prominent member of the Met-opolitan Turf Association, arrived today from New

Lyman J. Davis, secretary of the New Louisville Jockey Club, returned tonight to the Falls City. Before departure, he announced that there absolutely no foundation for the story that the Churchill Downs track would encounter opposition in their effort to give a spring meeting. Mr. Davis will go to New York after a brief stay in Louisville, to consult with James Butler concerning stake offerings at the Yonkers track meeting in August. J. II. Baker will dispose of Arrow Swift next Wednesday by auction to dissolve a partnership in the colt.

HIS EXPERIENCE AT LOS ANGELES.

"My idea, the first time I went to Los Angeles that I could afford to spend a few thousand dollars for a long winter rest. I took the family along with me and only shipped three or four along with me and only shipped three or four horses," said R. Angarola a few days ago in speaking of his experiences on the coast several "It was fine that season. The horses years ago. paid my every expense and I headed back east a few thousand to the good.

"The next season, I decided, was going to be my money season. I shipped two carloads of horses and secured the services of Walter Miller to do my light riding and Willie Dugan for the heavier mounts. I just naturally could not see how I was to be beaten.

"On the way out the horses took sick, and when I-landed I did not have one in the lot that could win anything. I dubbed along with them until I had lost enough money to buy a race track, and then I decided to send a string of them to Oakland. I had some dickey-legged ones that could race in the mud, and it had been raining there almost continuously.

"The horses were ready to race, and had shipped well, but my hoodoo was still active. Word went around that I was heading for Oakland, and that put an end to the rain. About that time I had to hustle around to gather my car fare back east.

"It's a fine place to race for the winter, but the way to do it right is to take a few horses and count it a holiday. That's the dope that Shilling Out-Generals Burns by Unexpected Rush-Jane Swift and Canique Successful Favorites.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 20.-The free handicap today was productive of a sensational finish in which Sir Edward, overlooked in the betting, won in the last few strides of a great stretch run next to the rail. G. Burns, on Magazine, was looking to the right of him and did not see Sir Edward slip through in the final hundred yards.

The eighteen books did a big day's business, quitting about even.

M. Clancy, a well-known eastern horseman, arrived today and will remain for the rest of the Jane Swift won the first race after setting a fast pace. Valley Stream, a castoff from the August Belmont stable, which was making her second start on the coast, was carried wide by the winner when entering the stretch and through this probably lost second place. Dally, which closed up fast next to the inside rail, getting up to take second money by the narrowest of margins.

May Dieudonne, from the Carman stable, and ridden by G. Burns, was made a pronounced favorite in the baby race, but was beaten in a neck and neek finish by Thunder Hill. The favorite was probably best and was practically left flat-footed at the start and experienced a rough journey. Calera and Annie Wells showed good early speed, the former tiring badly near the end, while the latter hung on to finish an easy third.

Another public favorite went down to defeat in the running of the third race. Mary F. was easily best and finished cantering. Escalante finished reso-lutely, but was no match for the winner today.

NAMES OF MILLETT'S TWO-YEAR-OLDS

Lexington, Ky., January 20. P. J. Millett has at his farm in Bourbon County, near Paris, five two-year-olds of his own breeding for which he has claimed names as follows:

Billy Klair, br. c, by Orlando—Amaranth. Cotton Gown, br. f, by Carlton Grange—Lauretta

Equity, b. f, by John Bright-Brown Leaf. Night Rider, b. c, by Orlando—Sister Racine. Sandro, ch. f, by Carlton Grange—Melody.

None of these was tried as a yearling. They have only been broken and given walking exercise. They will be trained by Frank Grosche.

The colt, Billy Klair, is a half-brother to Haw-kama, Lula Mack and Father Jim and was named for the popular young proprietor of the Leland Hotel in this city, who is also the representative of the city of Lexington in the Kentucky legislature new in session at Frankfort. If this colt performs as well as has the young man for whom he is named, he will have an unbeaten record, for Klair has never lost a race in politics and has been in the legislature for ten years.

Cotton Gown is a half-sister to that good horse, Cottontown, which is to be mated with Miss Doyle and three or four other mares next spring and then is to go in training for his handicap engagements in the east. Mr. Millett's sympathies are with the tobacco growers in their fight against the tobacco trust, hence the names Night Rider and Equity. Sandro, being out of Melody, by Rossington, is a half-sister to Topo Chico. The name of this filly, however, is masculine. It is the first two syllables the Fleischmann trophy, for two-year-olds of both of Sandrocottus, the name of a king in Hindustan, during whose reign Buddhism was introduced into his country. Mr. Millett, as is well known, is a railroad contractor and just now he is devoting his time to the construction of a branch of the Louis and Nashville between Jelico, Tenn., and Williamsburg, Ky. The breeding and racing of horses is his recreation and he has one of the best appointed farms in Bourbon County.

TWO-YEAR-OLDS IN NELSON STABLE.

R. W. Nelson has only one horse in his stable at present of three years old and over, and that is the three-year-old bay colt, Bilfil, by Toddington— Cornea. The seven others are two-year-olds as yet unnamed, with the exception of the full brother Oaklawn, which has been named Full Oak, and is probably the best of the youngsters. Trainer Max Ritcher, who is giving all of them regular saddle work, thinks he has some promising racing material in the little band, especially in the two colts. The breeding of the unnamed colt and five fillies is as follows:

Bay colt, by Nasturtium-Tally Ho. Bay filly, by Sempronius—Enough.
Bay filly, by Sempronius—Queen d'Or.
Bay filly, by Golden Garter—Miss Maggie M.
Bay filly, by Golden Garter—Pleasant Sail.
Chestnut filly, by Standing—Ill Turco.

HORSES COMPOSING THE ONECK STABLE.

The Oneck Stable in losing Ben Fleet and the twoear-old unnamed chestnut gelding by Inflexible-Intimidation by death recently, has had its ranks considerably diminished, Cohort now being the only good-class racer of known qualities in the stable wintering at Sheepshead Bay. The full list horses in charge of trainer Karrick is as follows:

orses in charge of trainer Karrick is as follows:
Ariel, ch. g, 3, by Cesarion—Armiel.
Cohort, ch. c, 3, by Cesarion—Ondalan.
Sheepskin, ch. c, 3, by Woolsthorpe—Truth.
Watch, ch. g, 2, by Ornament—Gaze.
Bay colt, 2, by Greenan—Dashing.

List of Thirty-Seven, from Which the Starters Will Probably Come.

Oakland, Cal., January 20.—Of the 107 remaining eligibles to the great $10,000 California race, the Burns Handicap, at one mile and a quarter, to be decided next Saturday, the following is a list of thirty-seven possible starters, seventeen of which are doubtful, with the weights as assigned by the clerk of the course and official handicapper, Mr. Martin Nathanson.

Whatever opposition may develop local contingent of horses entered, will probably come from Clamor. 105; Johnny Lyons, 104; Massa, 106; Judge Nelson, 106; Edwin Gum, 115; Miss Officious, 100. The thirty-seven are:

Today's deluge disposes of any possible chance for a fast or even fair track for next Saturday's great race, and many intended starters will missing. It is thought, however, that the field will exceed fifteen starters in any event.

Montgomery has very appropriately been given the top weight of 128 pounds, and experts predict, barring accidents, a certain victory for the crack four-year-old despite the heavy burden he will have to Montgomery's most formidable opponents should come from the R. F. Carman stable in Rifle man, 125 pounds, and Arimo, 117 pounds.

PARSIMONY IS THE ORDER AT LATONIA. The Only Stake of Real Importance, Except the Derby, Abolished.

The $10,000 Queen City Handicap has been temporarily shelved by the Latonia Jockey Club and it will not be renewed this year. It fell short of its purpose in the two years that it was tried. It did not prove itself a drawing card either as to horses or as to the public. The same crowd was there as would have came out to see a parade of $400 purses decided. In the future when racing in the west rests on a solid footing, the Queen City Handicap will be revived with a greater value than it had. It is expected that when this time arrives it will be easy to secure a field of classy horses as contenders which will draw a large crowd to see it run.

The stake list for the opening spring meeting the Fleischmann trophy, for two-year-olds of both sexes; the Derby and Oaks, the Brewers' Decoration and Hotel Handicaps, the Merchants' Selling Stakes and the Steeplechase Stakes about make up the list.

President Joseph L. Rhinock went over the stake list while here and all were approved by him, and he indorsed the dropping of the big stake. He said: "The Latonia Jockey Club must give away $3,000 That does not look so big when one picks up the paper and sees $20,000 stakes decided the east and $10,000 given away on other days, but when you take the difference in income into consideration the western tracks are giving away the most money. The $3 admission and 20,000 people going through the gates piles up a mountain of Out west 1,500 or 2,000 looks pretty good. I believe in big stakes. They as a rule, attract crowds and give the track a lot of publicity. People will flock to see the champion fighter, runner, swimmer or wrestler, and will go quite a ways to see the best horse in the country, either running or trotting. But our big handicap did not attract the best horses, it was not bi enough for that. But the day will come when this event will stand out like the Brooklyn, Brighton or Suburban. But other conditions will have to prevail. Our other stake offerings I think are liberal enough."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

ROCK SAND COLT AT NURSERY STUD.

Lexington, Ky., January 20.—The first foal by Rock Sand, the great English 'horse for which which August Belmont paid $125,000, to be dropped in this country, was foaled by Fetish at Nursery Stud this It is a fine big chestnut colt. Superin tendent Ed Kane is highly elated over the arrival "A colt for the first born," of the colt. Well, Rock Sand has made a good start. He has two two-year-olds and thirteen yearlings in England, but this is his first in America and the first of his third year in the stud."

Walter C. Rollins, who committed suicide in New York last Saturday, was a native of Lexington. He began his career on the turf some thirty years ago as a stable boy in the employ of the late Price McGrath. The first good horse he ever trained was General Monroe, winner of the Suburban Handicap of 1884.

GEMMELL RECOVERS SPEED.

DEFEATS MASSA AND OTHER FAST ONES IN THE MAIN OAKLAND RACE.

Work Box Takes the Two-Year-Old Race-Mandator and Lord Filigrane Run Up and Bought After Winning.

Oakland, Cal., January 20.-Jake Holtman made a bad mess of the start in the last race at Oakland today and the crowd hissed him vigorously. He called to the ten starters to come on, suddenly changed his mind, waved them back with voice and gesture, then in the next breath yelled to them again to go on, but forgot to spring the barrier. Only three, Lord Filigrane, Jack Paine and Lakeview, got away well, the others either pulling up or standing with their heads over the tape. The two favorites, Catherine F. and Crystal Wave, were in the last-named category and practically eliminated as contenders. Holtman, out in the pelting rain, stood quite still for a long time, a picture of de-jection. A. G. Blakeley's Lord Filigrane, with Miller up, won a handy victory at good odds. J. Dinkelspiel boosted the winner from $600 to $900, and Blakeley cheerfully let his horse go at that

The card was excellent, but contained no stake features. The fourth race at seven furlongs, however, attracted a high-class field. Eight of the best horses in local training participated. Gemmell, which, in his preceding two starts was badly beaten and seemingly unable to raise a common gallop, was today plunged upon with extreme con fidence and at post time no better than the ridicu-lously short price of 7 to 5 was obtainable about him. The result fully justified the confidence of the bushwhacking brigade, as Gemmell won like a 1 to 10 chance.

Grace G., the receding favorite, was held at the post by the whipper-in and virtually left. It is doubtful, however, if Soule's filly could have even exercised the winner on this occasion.

Mandator was bid up from $500 to $1,000 by W. Walker and bought out of the third race.

TRUE WING'S REMARKABLE RECOVERY.

True Wing, which was cut down in the running of the Thanksgiving Handicap at Oakland, has been taken from the hospital and returned to the training stable at the track. It was not thought possible at the time that the splendid mare could even be saved for breeding purposes, and her recovery is best told in the words of her owner, T. H. Ryan, who says:

"In all the time I have been around horses I never before saw one with such a constitution as True Wing. Her vitality is simply marvelous, and I Wing. don't believe there is another case on record that equals hers. After she had been on the table ten hours I thought she would fret too much if swung up in a sling, and requested that she be placed upon the floor to do the best she could. She er leg in a sli after the accident to her, lockjaw set in, looked like a hundred dollars to a nickel that she would die. Such an attack of that malady as she had would have killed any sound horse, but she pulled through all right. What makes her display pulled through all right. of vitality more astonishing is the fact that all through her sickness and before it and since, she has stood up-forty-three days in all. I had her taken from the hospital to the track in an ambulance, but she walked from her stall to the ambulance, and after being unloaded at the track walked After getting back in her old stall into the barn. she showed she recognized the boy who always attended her by laying her head over his shoulder, and twenty minutes later she laid down and enjoyed a roll. She now walks about in her and I believe she could walk ten miles if I cared to have her do so. Of course, I will never race he again, no matter how good she might look, but when I will ship her back to Illinois I have not determined. She has certainly showed to be a wonderfully game mare."

GROWTH OF THE NORTHERN CIRCUIT.

The statement of finances showing how the clubs of the Northern Racing Circuit distributed year more than a half million dollars in stakes and purses is a most striking reminder of the growth and extent of racing in this territory. all round an increase in values may be anticipated for the coming season. The development of this circuit is perhaps the most remarkable feature of the turf in America in the period that has elapsed since Mr. David A. Boyle's Ellsmere won the first race on the day of the opening of the Fort Erie track. At that time the Ontario Jockey Club gave seyen days racing in the spring and none at all in the autumn. The number of horses was hardly greater than is now seen on one day's program. The purses were $300 and the club retained the entrance money in all cases. The Queen's Plate had $500 added, whereas the added money is now The Queen's Plate $4,000. The Woodstock Plate included $500 of the club's money-just an overnight purse now-instead of $1,500 as last year, and similar disparity existed in all events as compared with the large amounts for which owners now compete.-Toronto Globe.

Winner—B. f, by Gerolstein—Priestess (trained by W. Reed).

Went to post at 1:44. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

Bravoure, from a striding start, maintained forward pursuit of Mitre from the start and outstayed him in the final drive. Mitre broke slowly, but drew out quickly and made the running to the last stride and is much improved. Jockey Mounce closed up steadily all the way into a game third. Silver Sue, prominent carly, was shuffled back and came again at the end. Yo San tired badly after early close and strenuous pursuit of Mitre. Fern L. closed a gap. Transmute held on well, but was never dangerous. Sycamore has scant chance at the start. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Scratched—72738 Joe Goss, 107.

Winner—B. c, by Box—Elise (trained by F. W. Doss).

Went to post at 2:09. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Work Box, from a lucky start, ran in forward pursuit of Who and drew out decisively in the final sixteenth. Who outbroke the others and led to midway of the stretch, but tired badly at the end. Madrileno, well up throughout, finished fast and was wearing Who down for second place. Bill Eaton, away slowly, closed up steadily into a fast going and close fourth. Narrator, away poorly and in close quarters, came fast at the end. Hazlet had a flatfooted inside start and can do much better. Toll Box had no chance and is probably a coming crack.

Overweights—Madrileno, 5 pounds; Johnny White, 3; Sir Davy, 1.

Winner—B, h, by Maddison—Flamingo (trained by H. E. Rowell).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 1 minute. Start strangling. Won cantering; second easily; third the same. Mandator, nearly left, gradually improved his position to the stretch, where he drew out and won off with ridiculous ease. Prince of Orange, from a good start, set the pace for a mile, then succumbed to the favorite, but was an easy second. Beechwood had no mishaps and ran well up throughout, but never menaced the leaders. Finny Side essayed to keep the lead and was a keen contender for seven furborgs, but quit badly. Matador, virtually left, closed a big early gap and loomed up on the last turn, then quit. Talamund showed early speed. Captain Hale was hopelessly outpaced. The winner, entered for $500, was bid up to $1,000 and bought by W Walker.

Winner—B. c, by Filigrane—The Lady Rebecca (trained by A. G. Blakeley).

Went to post at 3:52. At post 1 minute. Start very bad. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Lord Filigrane, from a lucky start, ran in forward pursuit of the early pacemaker and drew out in the last three furlongs and won as his rider pleased. Bardonia, away shadly, closed fit immense gap in the last six furlongs and finished with a rush. Jack Palne, from a flying start, was a keen contender to nidway of the stretch and dropped back after being sharply interfered with by Bardonia. Crystal Wave had the barrier in her mouth and had no chance at the start, but closed an immense gap. Cocytus quit. Catherine F. was pulling up at the start and virtually left, and so was Warden Yell. The winner, entered for $600, was bid up to $900 and bought by J. Dinkelspiel.

Scratched—72689 Balnade, 105; 7252 Gold Bar. 100.

Overweights—Lord Filigrane, 3 pounds; Bardonia, 1; Astoria Belle, 4.

Went to post at 1:50. At post 1 minute, Start good. Won handly; second and third driving. Jane Swift forced and set a sharp pace throughout and swung far wide when entering the stretch, taking Valley Stream with her, but raillied in the final sixteenth and finished gamely. Dally closed an early gap, made no ground fast in the final quarter next to the rail and, finishing fast, nipped out Valley Stream in the last stride. The latter ran well and, in a sharp last eighth drive, tired only at the end. Dixon Belle finished fast. Barbette ran well to the stretch and tired. Aquiline showed a dash of early speed.

Went to post at 2:10. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same. Thunder Hill broke flying, raced Caiera into subjection and, under a hard drive, had just enough left to withstand May Dieudonne's game challenge. The latter broke flatfooted, but made up ground rapidly and, after a rough journey, finished fast next to the rail and almost got up. Annie Wells was speedy, but tired fast in the last hundred yards. Caiera showed early speed, but quit. The winner, entered for $400, was bld up to $700 by W. D. Millard and bought in.

Winner—B. f, by Marta Santa—Proclaim (trained by J. Collins).

Went to post at 2:00. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving: second and third the same. Elizabeth Harwood, away forwardly and well ridden, moved into early contention with a rush and, gaining steadily in the last furlong, wore Helen Kidden down in the closing strides and won drawing out. Helen Kidder, also away well, showed a superior turn of speed and, going well, set the pace fast to almost the last stride. Incla broke running and forced a fast early pace, but, had to stand a hard drive at the end to save third place. Catherine Cardwell suffered from interference on the first turn and ran a good race. Lady Chilton, away bearing out, finished with a rush. Nancy Blues ran fairly well. Mrs. Will Guild, away with an advantage, tried to run out. The others were green and ran all over the track.

Went to post at 2:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same.

Coal Black Lady fenced well and was given a good ride, took the lead when called on and won with plenty in reserve. McAllister moved up gradually and responded gamely to punishment, but was not good enough to beat the winner. Captain Jarrel, forced wide most of the way, came with a rush after going over the last obstacle. Gold Circle was poorly ridden and ran a good race. Dacra came from a long way back over the last three jumps. Jim Hutton suffered from much interference. Woodsing tired after going one round of the course. J. Ed Grillo quit. Thespian was showing superior speed when he bolted into a wing and fell heavily at the fourth hedge.

Overweights—Captain Jarrel, 44 pounds.

Went to post at 3:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Jack Atkin displayed great speed through the first half, had the others driving hard in the early running and maintained his speed well in the stretch, but was tiring in the last furlong, although winning well in hand. Jacobite was prominent from the start and ran a good race, but tired after going three-quarters and barely lasted long enough to retain second place. Pasadena, running to his best form, was gaining fast at the end and would have been second in a few more strides. Comedienne showed speed, but tired fast after going a half. Royal Ben ran fairly well. Teo Beach can do much better and St. Bellane was outpaced throughout.

Time, 24½, 49, 1:14½, 1:40½, 1:53½.

Winner—B. g, by Orvieto—Elly (trained by P. M. Civill).

Went to post at 4:27. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Orly, hard ridden all the way, moved up steadily from a slow beginning and, standing the final drive with rare gameness, got up in the last stride. Donna moved into the lead quickly and set the pace fast, raced the early contenders into subjection and barely failed to last long enough to win. Lancastrian, also showing improvement, ran well and finished gamely, but was not good enough to beat the first pair. Beau Brummel showed speed, but tired after going a mile. Dr. McCiner ran as if short. Lord Stanhope quit after going a half and would not extend himself fully under his light rider. The winner, entered for $1,400, was bid up to $2,000 and bought by J. J. Ryay.

Scratched—72566 Gild. 94; 72726 Lady Vincent, 90; (72747) Tivolini, 101.

Overweights—Donna, 5 pounds; Beau Brummel, 1½.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

Geo. H., East St. Louis, Ill. The prices were orrect as given.

H. B., Chicago. The parlay should be paid or ee Harrison II. place.

Mac., Chicago. They all file daily before race time. The matter is not for inspection.

R. K., Peoria, Ill. It was not a parlay, and apparently B. is entitled to $2,625 from Arrow

C. V. B., Cincinnati, O. If both parties to the wager thought Louise F. was the horse engaged, the parlay was void as to her and good as to the A. L. T., Chicage. Badge won five races in suc cession at Washington Park in 1888 when a threeyear-old, and was then the property of Byron McClelland. Israel, Los Angeles, Cal. The straight bet on False Nun lost, and the place bet was a draw for the reason that there was no separate place bet-ting. No replies by letter.

C. F. W., Chicago. The American records at one mile are 1:35½ straight by Salvator, and 1:37% by Dick Welles and Kiamesha over elliptical tracks. Pretty Polly has no mile record.

E. A. S., Chicago, Ill. (1) December 13, 1906, Ocean Shore; March 6, 1907, Rapid Water; March 28, 1907, Harvel. (2) Matter not calculated. (3) Yes. (4) Necessarily only closing price, place and

J M R Chicago, Highball won the American Derby of 1904 and English Lad was fourth, Wood son being second, Rapid Warer third. There no public betting on the race, but Highball was favorite in such betting as there was.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The two-year-old, which is the only destined to race in the colors of F. R. Hitchcock this year, has been named Drum Major.

M. J. Shannon sold three of his horses at New Orleans last Saturday. Brimmer was bought by A Simons for $250. Calvin was sold to C. J. Brock miller for $60 and Athena to R. L. Taylor for $80.

Emil Herz is reported to be negotiating with W. E. Lemmons for Pajaroita and if the sale is made Herz says the three-year-old will be the be-ginning of another stable which he hopes to acquire efore the Oakland season closes.

H. A. Engman has not decided whether to send the yearling full brother to Hermis, which is now at the Meadows Stud, to the New York sales summer or race him in his own name. He is about such a yearling as Hermis was at that age and his owner may decide to race him as a two-year-old himself, following the course he pursued with Herat Oakland, and we will have the exclusive information on this trick, which will prove to be one of the best things that has been attempted at this track since it opened. This trick is being prepped for this particular race and comes from one of the best men in his line in the country. Our daily wires come from him also. His record since December 24 shows.

19 Wires: 12 Won, 5 Second, 1 Scratched and 1 Lost.
